

ATB Online™ Access Terms and Conditions (“Agreement”)

The terms and conditions set out in this Agreement, as amended from time to time, apply to your use and access of ATB's online and mobile services that are available from time to time (the “Services”). This Agreement replaces any and all prior agreements between you and ATB for the Services.

A. Interpretation

1. The terms defined in section V Definitions and Interpretation of this Agreement and elsewhere in this Agreement have the meanings therein for the purposes of this Agreement.
2. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions in this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any other agreement you may have with ATB in relation to a product or service offered by ATB (collectively, the “Other Agreements”), then unless otherwise indicated in this Agreement the terms and conditions of the Other Agreements shall apply to the extent of the inconsistency. This Agreement does not replace any of the Other Agreements.

B. Services - General

1. To access ATB Online and the Services, you must use your Credentials. You may also be required to answer Security Questions.
2. You agree that ATB may accept and act upon any instructions provided to us through ATB Online when your Credentials have been used to access ATB Online, whether or not it is you who accessed the Services. You agree that electronic display pages accessed by entering your Credentials constitute written documents and that clicking or otherwise electronically activating “OK”, “submit”, “continue”, “approve”, or similar areas of such pages according to on-screen instructions or otherwise submitting instructions electronically shall have the same legal effect as if you had signed by hand and delivered hard copy versions of such pages to ATB with intent to be legally bound by their contents. You agree that once such instructions are clicked or submitted, ATB shall have no obligation to reverse them.
3. You agree that the Services will not be used for illegal or fraudulent purposes or for purposes which could affect the security or integrity of the Services or ATB systems, hardware or software.
4. ATB reserves the right to deny access to an Account or some or all of the Services, or deny access to ATB Online all together, under certain circumstances, including:
 - i. if any of your assets are attached or assigned by a legal order;
 - ii. if in the judgment of ATB any activity on any of your Accounts or the use of the Services is for illegal or fraudulent purposes;
 - iii. if in the judgment of ATB access to your Accounts is being performed fraudulently or without your consent;
 - iv. if you are in arrears in any obligation to ATB including loan payments, service charges, etc.; or
 - v. if access to ATB Online or the Services is being used to attempt to obtain unauthorized access to ATB systems, hardware or software.

If you request reinstatement of access to an Account, any Service or ATB Online, ATB may require that you take certain steps, such as updating security software on your Device, before it may permit access.

5. ATB may, in its discretion and without prior notice, refuse a request for authorization of any transaction and may notify third parties of such refusal as it deems necessary. In exercising such discretion, ATB may take into account in calculating the funds available, any funds which ATB may decide have been credited or debited to the Account. ATB may refuse to honour any payment and/or funds transfer request if there are insufficient funds in your Account or ATB may create or increase an overdraft to your Account according to the applicable Other Agreements.

6. You agree to pay the fees that may be applicable to your use of the Services. You agree that, if applicable, we may deduct the fees from any account you have with us at the same time as they are incurred.

C. Funds Transfer Service

1. If you use our funds transfer service, you may, if ATB permits, make a funds transfer to another account at ATB or to another Canadian financial institution. Upon your verification of the details of the transfer, as required by ATB, ATB will immediately withdraw the funds from the Account you designate. We will send the funds for transfer by the end of that business day if the instructions are received by us during the business day, or by the end of the next business day if we receive the instructions outside of business hours. You agree that we are not responsible for any loss or costs you may suffer as a result of any errors in the account or other transfer details that you provide us. You also acknowledge that we cannot control when another financial institution will credit the account of the person to be receiving the funds. You also acknowledge that ATB cannot cancel any transfer of funds once the transfer has been sent. If the account details that you provide us are invalid, then the transfer amount will be returned and deposited into your Account or any other account you have with us.

2. If you transfer funds between any of the Canadian dollar and US dollar Accounts that you have with us, we will advise you of the exchange rate and the US or Canadian dollar equivalent (as applicable) of the amount being transferred. By verifying the transaction details immediately when prompted, you are confirming that you agree both to the exchange rate indicated and to the funds being transferred. You acknowledge that the rate quoted at any time is available for a limited time only and we cannot guarantee that the rate will be available when you verify the transaction or for any further transfer or purchase or sale of currency (whether of cash, cheque or draft). You also acknowledge that the rates we charge for buying US Dollars from you and selling US Dollars to you may be different. As a result, the rate we charge you to transfer funds back or to reverse any transfer, even if on the same day, may be different.

D. Electronic Bill Payments

1. You may give instructions to ATB to pay bills to those companies for which ATB accepts payment.

2. If your instructions for a bill payment are received by us by 7:59 p.m. Mountain Time, the bill payment company (or bill payment company's designate) will receive payment the same business day (Saturdays, Sundays and holidays on which ATB bill payment units are closed, are not considered business days). As different bill payment companies have different payment requirements, it is your responsibility to know what your bill payment company's requirements are and to make payments accordingly. ATB will not be responsible for any late payment penalties, fees, or interest imposed by your bill payment company under any circumstances, unless ATB has been negligent.

3. All disputes between you and bill payment companies designated on the registration form completed in-branch, via telephone or online by you, including your rights to compensation or any off-setting rights (set-off), shall be settled directly by and between the bill payment companies and yourself.

E. E-transfer

1. Terms and conditions in this section E E-transfer apply only to the E-transfer Service and are in addition to all other terms and conditions in this Agreement. If there is a conflict between this section E and the remaining terms of this Agreement, this section E will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

2. When you initiate an E-transfer using the E-transfer Service, we will withdraw the applicable amount from your Account and send an email notice to the Recipient at the email address that you designate. The email notice will indicate:
 - i. that you are the Sender and disclose your email address;
 - ii. the amount of the E-transfer;
 - iii. the name of the Recipient; and
 - iv. that you are using the E-transfer Service.
3. The amount withdrawn for the E-transfer will be held until we receive notification that the Recipient has correctly responded to the E-transfer Question or you cancel and reclaim the E-transfer funds or the E-transfer expires.
4. The Recipient of the E-transfer may claim or decline the E-transfer through ATB Online, the online banking service of another Canadian financial institution, or through the ACXSYS Corporation ("ACXSYS") payment service. There may be a fee charged by the other financial institution or by ACXSYS.
5. In order to claim or decline the E-transfer, the Recipient must correctly answer the E-transfer Question posed to them. The Recipient will have 30 days to claim or decline the E-transfer through the E-transfer Service or such other time period as designated by the other financial institution or ACXSYS, after which the E-transfer will expire. The Sender may cancel an E-transfer up to the time the E-transfer is claimed. The Recipient may not claim the E-transfer once the Sender cancels the E-transfer, even if they have already received the email notification.
6. If the E-transfer you sent is cancelled, declined or has expired, then the E-transfer amount will be returned and deposited into your Account or any other account you have with us. If the E-transfer is claimed by the Recipient through ACXSYS but insufficient information is provided by the Recipient to ACXSYS in order to pay the amount to the Recipient, then ACXSYS may forward the amount to us by cheque. We will return the E-transfer amount to your Account (or any other account you have with us) less any fee that ACXSYS may charge us.
7. You agree that ATB and any other participating financial institution and ACXSYS, may accept and act upon any instructions provided through an E-transfer so long as the individual claiming the E-transfer correctly answers the E-transfer Question, whether or not such individual is the intended Recipient.
8. You agree that when you send an E-transfer through the E-transfer Service you are responsible to provide us with a correct and operational email address for the Recipient, and to update that information promptly if it changes.
9. You agree that you are responsible to check on the status of any E-transfer that you send using the E-transfer Service; you can do so by checking both the pending E-transfer screen for E-transfers not yet completed and the transaction history in ATB Online for completed or failed E-transfers.
10. Access limits, including the amount of money that may be sent or received via E-transfer may be set by us or by a third party.

F. Global Transfer

1. Terms and conditions in this section F Global Transfer apply only to the Global Transfer Service and are in addition to all other terms and conditions in this Agreement. If there is a conflict between this section F and the remaining terms of this Agreement, this section F will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

2. Global Transfer allows you to send funds from your Account to be deposited directly into the Recipient's account ("Recipient Account"). You agree to follow procedures and instructions for use of Global Transfer that we may establish from time to time.

3. You may make a Global Transfer to 46 countries in 28 currencies ("Eligible Global Transfers"). However, the following Eligible Global Transfers are subject to conditions:

- i. Australia;
- ii. China*;
- iii. Japan;
- iv. South Korea;
- v. Liechtenstein;
- vi. Mexico;
- vii. New Zealand;
- viii. South Africa; and
- ix. Switzerland.

*Can transfer only Canadian dollars or US dollars to these countries.

Can transfer only Canadian dollars to these countries.

4. Global Transfers to the countries set out in section F.3 above are completed through wire service and are subject to standard wire service fees of Intermediaries ("Wire Global Transfers"). Intermediaries will deduct the wire service fees ("Wire Fee") from the Global Transfer amount. "Intermediary" means any person receiving or handling funds for ATB or the Recipient including other financial institutions (including the Recipient FI), payment networks and their respective agents and service providers.

5. The countries included in Eligible Global Transfers and Wire Global Transfers are subject to change at any time without notice. For a current list of the countries, please see our website, atb.com.

6. There is a fee to send a Global Transfer ("Global Transfer Fee"). The Global Transfer Fee:

- i. is payable when you send a Global Transfer;
- ii. will be shown when you send a Global Transfer;
- iii. is non-refundable; and
- iv. may change from time to time.

7. Additional fees (for example, the Wire Fee, if applicable) and/or taxes may be deducted from the Global Transfer amount by the Intermediary.

8. You may make a Global Transfer for a set limit that we establish from time to time without incurring the Global Transfer Fee (such transfer, a "Test Global Transfer"). The Test Global Transfer may be made only once to a designated Recipient Account. However, if the Recipient has multiple accounts, the Test Global Transfer may be made to each Recipient Account, but only once for each Recipient Account. If you exceed the set limit for the Test Global Transfer, or make a Test Global Transfer more than once to a Recipient Account, such transfers will incur the Global Transfer Fee.

9. A Test Global Transfer is not available for any of the countries set out in section F.3 above.

10. With the exception of the Global Transfer Fee set out in section F.6 above, any reference to Global Transfer includes a Test Global Transfer. For example, if you:

- i. cancel a Test Global Transfer in accordance with section F.13.i;
- ii. recall a Test Global Transfer in accordance with section F.13.ii.; or
- iii. if the Recipient FI rejects the Test Global Transfer as set out in section F.14

you will incur the applicable fees associated with these services. We cannot guarantee the Test Global Transfer amount that may be refunded, if at all.

11. Prior to submitting a Global Transfer, you may obtain a quote of the estimated Global Transfer amount being transferred.

12. Upon your verification of the details of the Global Transfer, as required by ATB, ATB will immediately withdraw the funds from the Account you designate. You are responsible for ensuring that all information relating to the Recipient, the Recipient Account, and the financial institution you have indicated at which the Recipient should receive the Global Transfer ("Recipient FI") that we or an Intermediary may require, is correct ("Recipient Information"). Neither ATB nor any Intermediary is responsible to verify the accuracy of any information you provide, and ATB and the Recipient FI may rely solely on an account number or identifying number to complete the Global Transfer. You are responsible to update the Recipient Information if it changes. You agree that we are not responsible for any loss or costs you may suffer as a result of any errors in the Recipient Information or other details for the Global Transfer that you provide us.

13. If you request that the Global Transfer be made in a currency other than that of your Account ("Recipient Currency"), before you submit the Global Transfer, you will see:

- i. our rate of exchange, which is based on current market rates, established at the time the funds are converted, and includes a Spread ("Exchange Rate"); and
- ii. the amount of the funds that will be withdrawn from your Account, which will include the Global Transfer Fee (if applicable), in the currency of the Account.

By verifying the Global Transfer details when prompted, you are confirming that you agree both to the Exchange Rate and to the funds being transferred. You acknowledge that the Exchange Rate quoted at any time is available for a limited time only. If you do not submit the Global Transfer within this limited time, the Global Transfer will timeout and you will be required to re-enter the Global Transfer details. "Spread" is the difference between the prices we bid to buy and offer to sell foreign currency. We derive income from the Spread. Our Spreads may differ from time to time across currencies and can widen (without prior notice) due to volatile market conditions, for example.

14. Once you submit a Global Transfer, and the funds have been withdrawn from your Account, you may call us at 1-800-332-8383 to cancel or recall the Global Transfer, as follows:

- i. there is a limited time during which a cancellation may be attempted. If the Global Transfer is cancelled, we will return the Global Transfer amount to your Account. We will charge a fee to cancel the Global Transfer, which is charged directly to your Account at the time of cancellation; or
- ii. if the Global Transfer cannot be cancelled, then you may request a recall of the Global Transfer. ATB will make every reasonable effort to recall the Global Transfer. If the Global Transfer is recalled, we cannot guarantee the Global Transfer amount that may be refunded, if at all. The Intermediary may charge a fee and/or other costs may be deducted from the funds prior to returning the funds. We will charge a fee to recall the Global Transfer, which is charged directly to your Account at the time of recall. We are not liable to refund you any amount which was not refunded to us.

Whether the Global Transfer is cancelled in accordance with section F.14.i or recalled in accordance with section F.14.ii, the Global Transfer Fee (if applicable) will not be refunded.

15. If the Recipient FI rejects the Global Transfer (for example, due to errors in the Recipient Information or other details for the Global Transfer that you provide), then the Global Transfer amount will be returned and deposited into your Account. The Intermediary will convert the Global Transfer amount into your Account's currency at their rate of exchange prior to our receipt of the funds for deposit into your Account. We will charge a fee to return the Global Transfer, which is charged directly to your Account at the time of the return. The Recipient FI may also charge a fee for rejecting the Global Transfer, which fee the Recipient FI may deduct from the funds prior to returning the funds. We are not liable to refund you any amount which was not refunded to us.

16. We may establish limits on the dollar amount of funds you may send through a Global Transfer. If you attempt to make a Global Transfer in excess of these limits, your Global Transfer will be declined.

17. We make no representations or warranties on the timing of delivery of the Global Transfer to the Recipient.

18. No interest will be paid on funds in transit.

19. We may engage Intermediaries selected in our complete discretion to make the Global Transfer.

20. You may make a Global Transfer 7 days a week. However, you agree that the Global Transfer will be subject to Settlement Rules and Applicable Laws, and that ATB and/or any Intermediaries may take any steps they consider necessary to comply with the Settlement Rules or Applicable Laws. For example, though you may submit a Global Transfer on a Saturday, in accordance with Settlement Rules, the Global Transfer will be delivered on a business day. "Applicable Laws" means laws, regulations, orders, guidelines or directives of foreign or domestic governmental authorities or regulatory bodies that apply to ATB or the Intermediaries, whether or not these have the force of law. "Settlement Rules" means the rules, procedures, internal policies, standards or bylaws used by Intermediaries or ATB, or to which Intermediaries or ATB may be subject.

21. To comply with the Settlement Rules or Applicable Laws, ATB or an Intermediary may disclose Personal Information about you and the Recipient to an Intermediary or to a foreign or domestic government authority or regulatory body to complete the Global Transfer. Personal Information may include Social Insurance Number (SIN), Passport number, date of birth, and other information reasonably required to use the Global Transfer Service. On behalf of you and the Recipient, you:

- i. consent to such disclosure; and
- ii. acknowledge that the Personal Information may be accessed by foreign or domestic authorities or regulatory bodies as a result.

You confirm that you have the authority to make such consent and acknowledgements on behalf of the Recipient.

ATB will collect, use and disclose your Personal Information in accordance with Section U – Privacy below.

22. We may suspend or cancel your ability to use the Global Transfer Service or decline to complete the Global Transfer for any reason without notifying you in advance.

The Non-ATB Account information is still subject to the terms and conditions with the applicable financial service providers and accessing the Non-ATB Account information through ATB Online does not relieve you of any obligation under such terms and conditions. Your other financial service providers may not have consented to you providing us with Log-in Details or providing access to the Non-ATB Account information. It is your responsibility to ensure that you review the terms and conditions that are applicable to your Non-ATB Accounts to understand the consequences (if any) of such access.

5. Not all accounts from all financial service providers may be available in the ATB TrackIt Service at any time and we can change which accounts and which financial service providers are available to be viewed through the ATB TrackIt Service.

We may not confirm whether the email address is correct or whether you receive the Alerts. The Alerts may not be sent in real time and you should not rely upon the accuracy of any Alert without further verification. Since email is not secure, we cannot guarantee the privacy or security of the Alerts being sent. In addition to section N Limitation of Liability, you agree that we are not liable if any of the Alerts that are sent are intercepted or accessed by someone else, or if the privacy or security of the information contained within any Alert is compromised. If you do not comply with such request made pursuant to this section K.9, then we may place a hold on or reverse any credit made to your Account in relation to the Item, even if this creates an overdraft on your Account.

10. You may access Deposit a Cheque 7 days a week. If we receive the Image by 8:00 p.m. Mountain Time, we will consider that day to be the deposit date ("Deposit Date"). If we receive the Image after 8:00 p.m. Mountain Time, we will consider the next day to be the Deposit Date.

12. We may establish limits on the dollar amount of Items and/or number of Items which may be deposited through Deposit a Cheque. If you attempt to make a deposit in excess of these limits, we may reject your deposit. If, at any time, we permit you to make a deposit in excess of these limits, we will not be obligated to allow such a deposit at other times.

13. While there is no fee for the provision of Deposit a Cheque, regular Account transaction fees may apply in accordance with this Agreement or Other Agreements. We may charge a fee for the provision of Deposit a Cheque if we provide you with advance notice required in accordance with applicable laws. If you continue to use Deposit a Cheque after the fee becomes effective, you agree to pay the fee that has been disclosed to you, as this fee may change from time to time.

14. The manner in which the Items are cleared, presented for payment, and collected shall be at our sole discretion.

15. By using Deposit a Cheque you accept the risk that an Item may be intercepted or misdirected during transmission. We bear no liability to you or others for any such intercepted or misdirected Item or information disclosed through such errors.

16. The Image transmitted to us using Deposit a Cheque must be legible and clear, as determined in our sole discretion. L. At-a-Glance

1. The At-a-Glance service allows you to view Account balance information on your Device without logging into ATB Mobile. To select to use the Service, you must enable At-a-Glance in ATB Mobile and select the Accounts that you wish to be able to view. By enabling At-a-Glance, you understand that your Account balance information will be viewable by anyone that you share your Device with or permit to use your Device.

M. Security

1. You are responsible for the care and safety of your Password, Security Questions, Passcodes and E-transfer Questions (together, "Security Information"). You will keep the Security Information confidential and secure from all persons. However, if you are the Sender of an E-transfer, then you may disclose the answer to an E-transfer Question to the intended Recipient, except that you must not do so in the optional message field of the E-transfer email notice. If you download an App and/or select to use biometric identification to access the App, then you must not share your Device or allow someone else to access your Device with their biometric information as they may obtain access to some or all of your Account information and may also be able to conduct transactions on your Accounts.

2. At your own risk, you may share your Username, Password and Security Questions with the provider of an Aggregation Service. If you do, you acknowledge that:

- i. we will not assist the provider or give them any information and we may prevent access to your Accounts by Aggregation Service providers;
- ii. we will not be responsible for any losses that may result from you sharing your Username, Password or Security Questions with the provider;
- iii. you are responsible to ensure that you are satisfied with the security provided by the Aggregation Service provider and to determine your rights and responsibilities in respect of the provider and the Aggregation Service; and
- iv. you will immediately change your Password and Security Questions if you terminate your use of any Aggregation Service.

For the purposes of this Agreement, an "Aggregation Service" is an online service offered by a third party that obtains and consolidates information relating to your accounts with the provider of the service, but excludes the ATB TrackIt Service and any service (other than ATB Online) that permits you (or someone on your behalf) to conduct transactions on your Accounts.

3. You will notify ATB immediately by telephone if your Password (except as indicated in section M.2 above) or Security Questions may have become known by someone else or have been disclosed to anyone, or if there has been suspicious, fraudulent or unusual activity on any of your Accounts.

4. You agree to follow ATB's instructions upon notification as required in section M.3 above.

5. When you conduct certain transactions through, or change certain information on, ATB Online, then you may be prompted to enter a Passcode in order to complete that transaction or change. That Passcode will be sent to you by automated phone call or SMS text message to the number or Device that you select. Text messages may be subject to charges in accordance with the terms of your Device plan. You understand that you will not be able to complete the transaction or effect the change unless the applicable Passcode is entered correctly.

6. The Device that you use may be vulnerable to viruses or online attacks that seek to intercept or alter information. To reduce the chance of this occurring, you should take all reasonable precautions, including ensuring that any such Device you use to access ATB Online or any of the Services has up to date anti-virus software, anti-spyware software and a firewall, if available. In addition, you should also ensure that you log off of ATB Online each time you finish using it, as soon as you are finished.

N. Limitation of Liability

1. ATB is not required to verify the identity of, or to confirm if any authority has been granted to, the user of the Credentials or any component of it. You are responsible for the use of any Credentials.

2. ATB will make every reasonable effort to ensure performance of the Services. Unless ATB is negligent, ATB is not liable for any loss, damages, cost, claims, expenses, harm or injury caused by:

- i. service malfunction or failure that affects the accuracy or timing of any functions; or
- ii. system or Device error, failure, malfunction, unavailability or withdrawal, whether or not within or beyond its control, and ATB shall in no case be liable (even if negligent) for any consequential, incidental, indirect, special, economic, punitive or exemplary loss or damages.

3. There are no warranties or conditions, express or implied, with respect to the Services under this Agreement.

4. ATB is not responsible for acts or omissions of your Internet service providers.

O. Online Guarantee

1. This section O Online Guarantee sets out ATB's liability for any Unauthorized Transaction (as defined below) conducted on your Account (excluding any MasterCard Account or any business Account) through access to the Services.

2. ATB agrees to reimburse you for direct monetary losses to your Account resulting from the following:

- i. any unauthorized transaction that occurs after you notify ATB as required in section M.3 and that is not conducted by you or by someone other than you who has authority to access any of the Accounts; or
- ii. any unauthorized transaction where you can show that you have been the victim of fraud, theft or that you have been coerced or otherwise forced to enter into such transaction, provided that you fully cooperate with ATB in any investigation that ATB may commence

(each an "Unauthorized Transaction").

However, ATB will not be responsible for any transaction that is not an Unauthorized Transaction or for any transaction, even if an Unauthorized Transaction, where you do not comply with reasonable security precautions, including:

- i. voluntarily disclosing or otherwise contributing to the disclosure of your Username, Password, Passcodes or Security Questions, including with respect to an Aggregation Service;
- ii. not complying with instructions (whether through a notice or otherwise) that ATB may give you in relation to the security of your Account while accessing the Services, including selecting a Password similar to an obvious combination such as your birth date, Account number or telephone number;

- iii. accessing the Services on a Device when you know or ought to know that the security of your Password or Security Questions may be compromised;
- iv. sharing a Device with, or permitting the biometric information of someone else to access your Device, where that person is not a joint owner of your Account; or
- v. not using up to date anti-virus software, anti-spyware software and a firewall, if available for your Device.

P. Termination, Discontinuance and Amendments

1. You may terminate access to ATB Online by providing ATB with notice. ATB Online access will also be terminated immediately upon the effective date of closure of the relevant Accounts with ATB. Neither termination nor discontinuance shall affect your liability or obligation under this Agreement.
2. ATB has the right to vary, discontinue or terminate elements of the Services at any time without notice to you. No post-dated bill payments, funds transfer or other services will be processed after the cancellation of any such Services.
3. ATB may amend the terms and conditions of this Agreement at any time by providing notice to you of such amendments. Notice of the amendments may be given either before or after the coming into effect of such amendments. Your use of the Services after the later of either the notice or the date the amendment comes into effect, constitutes your consent to such amendments.

Q. No Waiver

1. ATB shall not be deemed to have waived any of its rights or remedies hereunder unless such waiver is in writing and signed by ATB. No delay or omission on the part of ATB in exercising any right or remedy shall operate as a waiver of such right or remedy or any other rights or remedies. A waiver on any particular occasion shall not be construed as a bar or waiver of any rights or remedies on future occasions.

R. Fees/Charges

1. ATB may charge fees for access to the Services and for conducting various transactions. These fees are subject to change from time to time.
2. Fees may be debited to any account you may have with us.

S. Notices

1. Any notices to be sent to you pursuant to this Agreement, may be sent to you by ATB through Messages.
2. You agree to regularly review Messages.

T. Records

1. ATB's records of transactions on your Accounts shall be final and binding on you, subject to obvious error, provided that you notify ATB in a timely manner of such error.
