2.2. Service Schedule

Supplemental terms and conditions applicable to a specific Service may be set out in the applicable Service Schedule. Each Service Schedule will be deemed to incorporate all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In the event of any inconsistencies between this Agreement and any Service Schedule, this Agreement prevails unless such Service Schedule specifically states otherwise. ATB BUSINESS ACCESS AND SERVICES

3. Administrators, Users and Authority

3.1. Administrator and User Access

The Client authorizes ATB Financial to provide the Administrator (or any Users appointed by the Administrator in accordance with the procedures outlined herein) access to ATB Business, to all of the Client's Accounts at ATB Financial together with all of the Client's Accounts opened after the date of this Agreement, as well as to the Services.

3.2. Opt Out

In the event the Client does not want a specific Account to be accessible via ATB Business, the Client may remove such Account by completing the appropriate opt out procedure as required by ATB Financial.

3.3. Initial Login

For ATB Business, the Administrator shall be responsible for completing the initial login process. After the initial login process has been completed, any Administrator shall have the option to create additional Users, to restrict the access of such Users to the Services or to establish transaction limits for such Users. An Administrator shall create Administrators and Users online by following the instructions contained in the appropriate screen pages, which include the Administrator's assignment of a valid User identification and password for use by such User. ATB Financial shall not be responsible for verifying Users are authorized to access ATB Business.

3.4. Users

The Administrator may appoint individual Users to conduct transactions, carry out other Instructions, set up and access Account information on behalf of the Client in respect of the Services. A User shall only be authorized to conduct those transactions or Instructions or parts thereof which have been designated to them by an Administrator, and a User's access may be revoked by an Administrator at any time subject to Workflow Approval Requirements. At the request of an Administrator, different Users may have different levels of access to the Services or differing transaction limits. The Client is solely responsible for ensuring that the level of access or any transaction limits provided to any individual User is appropriate for that person and is in accordance with the Client's internal protocols and policies. A User's access rights as determined by the Administrator shall continue until such time as the Administrator removes such User or otherwise changes their delegated authority and ATB Financial has had sufficient time to process the request. For greater certainty, once ATB Financial has processed such request, any changes or deletions of delegated authority take effect upon the next attempt to log in to ATB Business by such User.

3.5. Authority

The Client agrees that its Authorized Contacts and its Signing Officers are acting with the full authority of the board of directors, members, partners, general partners, trustee, board of trustees or other applicable governing body of the Client (as the case may be) in their use of ATB Business and the Services and that the Client has granted authority to such Authorized Contacts and Signing Officers to legally bind the Client with respect to their use of the Services. Any access to the Services purporting to be authorized by the Client or on its behalf by its Authorized Contacts or Signing Officers will be considered by ATB Financial, for all purposes, to be duly authorized by the Client. For greater certainty, the Client will be bound by all information, orders, entries and other Instructions provided by the Client or on its behalf by its Authorized Contacts or Signing Officers through the Services and the Client will be liable for all transactions conducted through the Services and any Damages that may arise from these transactions. The Client acknowledges that each transaction made through ATB Business or any other permitted means on any Account of the Client is authorized as though each Instruction, verification or other approval has been duly signed and delivered by the Client to ATB Financial. The Client accepts sole responsibility for any Damage that may result from any Authorized Contact or any Signing Officer misusing their authority in any way including, without limitation, in respect of any funds of the Client which are trust funds.

3.6. Multiple Signatures

As a result of the powers granted to the Administrator in this Agreement, ATB Financial may receive and carry out transactions, authorizations and other Instructions through ATB Business in respect of the Services despite the fact that such Account requires two or more signatures to conduct transactions (for example, writing cheques or making withdrawals at a branch). This means that Instructions, approvals or other authorizations in respect of the Services may be received and acted upon by ATB Financial on the Instruction of one individual (an Authorized Contact or a Signing Officer) even though such Account requires two or more signatures and even though such Account may hold trust funds for transactions which occur outside the scope of this Agreement and any accompanying Service Schedule. As long as such Instruction conforms to the requirements set out in this Agreement or any Service Schedule, such Instruction will be deemed to be duly authorized by the Client.

3.7. Identity Verification

ATB Financial may be required to obtain confirmation of identity or other information in relation to the Administrator or any User in order to comply with applicable laws. This information may be obtained before or after access is granted to the Administrator or any User, and access to ATB Business (whether partial or complete) may be blocked or limited until this information has been fully obtained (in ATB Financial's sole discretion). When any such identity information is provided by the Client to ATB Financial, the Client certifies that such information is true and correct.

4. Security

ii) the Client shall establish and implement policies, procedures and a system of controls over the use of the Services and perform such audits as the Client believes are appropriate to ensure that the Services are only used by the Client and its Authorized Contacts in an appropriate and proper fashion;

iii) the Client shall ensure that Authorized Contacts never leave their Devices unattended while logged into ATB Business and must always exit ATB Business by clicking on the appropriate logout command at the end of each session;

iv) if the Client, Administrator or any User downloads an Application onto a Device, or uses an Application through a Device, and the Client, Administrator or User shares their Device with others or Biometrics of others are stored on the Device, the Client, Administrator or User shall not enable Biometric identification to access the Application, where applicable;

v) the Client shall ensure that any Authentication Methods be immediately terminated if the Client learns or suspects that such information has been disclosed to or obtained by any unauthorized third party;

vi) the Client shall ensure that ATB Business is only accessed from Devices (to the extent reasonably available) on which virus protection software and firewalls have been installed. The Client agrees to immediately update all Devices and servers with the latest operating system software, security patches and anti-virus and anti-spyware programs;

vii) the Client shall follow any Authentication Method requirements established by ATB Financial and, in any event, ensure that Authentication Methods are not easily guessed by others. This includes having Authentication Methods that are not sequential numbers such as 1234, social insurance numbers or telephone numbers or selecting an Authentication Method that is the same as a personal identification number (PIN) used for any debit or credit cards held with ATB Financial; and viii) the Client shall follow procedures dealing with intelligent authentication. For greater certainty, intelligent authentication consists of security questions along with answers unique to each Authorized Contact. The Client agrees that its Authorized Contacts shall set up (if required) unique questions and answers which are not easily identifiable or guessed. The Client is responsible for all transactions undertaken through ATB Business. This includes transactions where someone is able to figure out any login IDs, passwords and any other Authentication Methods.

ix) the Client acknowledges that ATB Financial will never contact it or its Authorized Contacts by email or text message in an attempt to obtain login IDs, passwords or other Authentication Methods. The Client is responsible for keeping all of its security credentials (including MFA passcodes, login IDs, passwords and other authentication credentials) safe, secure and confidential

4.2. Passcode

When a User conducts certain transactions through, or changes certain information on, ATB Business, the User may be prompted to enter a MFA passcode in order to authenticate that transaction or change. That MFA passcode may be sent by automated phone call, email or text message, or any other method to the telephone number or Device selected by the User. Text messages may be sent to a mobile device and may be subject to charges in accordance with the terms of the mobile device plan. The Client acknowledges that, subject to Workflow Approval Requirements, levels of access or transaction limits that may be established by the Client or ATB Financial from time to time, the User will not be able to complete the transaction or effect the change unless the applicable passcode is entered correctly. ATB Financial is not responsible in any way for any Damages suffered by the Client if a User cannot access ATB Business due to the authentication requirements.

4.3. Monitoring

The Client is responsible for instructing the Administrator and each User to comply with the security procedures set out in Sections 4.1 and 4.2 above. If at any time the Client believes that the security of communications between the Client and ATB Financial has been compromised or is in any way insecure, the Client must immediately notify ATB Financial and assist as required by ATB Financial to investigate and correct communication security.

4.4. Unauthorized Use of Authentication Methods

The Client shall notify ATB Financial immediately if it suspects that any telephone number or Device to which a MFA passcode or other confirmation code may be sent, or other Authentication Methods have become known to or accessible by any unauthorized person. The Client agrees that ATB Financial may block access to Services without notice in the event that ATB Financial believes that there has been a breach in security. ATB Financial will not be liable for any Damages that the Client may suffer or incur in relation to the Services or from acting on Instructions received through ATB Business. ATB Financial shall have no liability for any unauthorized use of Authentication Methods before the Client has notified ATB Financial of possible unauthorized use and ATB Financial has had a reasonable opportunity to act upon such notice. In no circumstances shall ATB Financial have any liability for any unauthorized use of the Client's or any Authorized Contact's identifying information or passwords. In no circumstances is ATB Financial required to verify the identity of or to confirm if any authority has been granted to the provider of Instructions.

4.5. Technology Requirements

To have ATB Business access, the Client must have Internet access using Internet browser programs that are compatible with ATB Financial's systems and which have at least 128 bit encryption. ATB Financial has the right, at any time, to enhance the security associated with the Services. The Client understands that it may be required to update its browser, system or security procedures and agrees to do so as requested by ATB Financial in order to continue accessing or using ATB Business.

4.6. Requirement to Exercise Caution

The Client acknowledges that given the prevalence of fraud, it shall exercise caution when transacting through ATB Business. In that regard, the Client acknowledges that:

- (a) there are fake websites that purport to be ATB Financial that are linked to email, text messages, direct message or pop-up with a request to update Account information or to reconfirm the Client's identity with ATB Financial. The Client agrees that it will (and it will ensure that its Authorized Contacts) always check the domain name closely and verify the URL before clicking on any links and use a website checker. The Client acknowledges that ATB Financial will never email, text or call the Client requesting personal or Account information. ATB Financial will not be responsible if the Client, or any Authorized Contact provides Authentication Methods through a fake website; and
- (b) there are many instances of email account takeovers where a purported legitimate contact requests that the Client send funds to a different account or to a different jurisdiction. The Client agrees to exercise caution in these types of circumstances and to take steps to verify where and to whom funds are being sent. The Client acknowledges that it shall be solely responsible for instructions that it provides to ATB Financial and which ATB Financial acts upon that even where the underlying instructions were not from who the Client thought they were from.

It is the Client's responsibility to educate itself (and its Authorized Contacts) in respect of fraud, scams and other trends that occur in respect of online transactions (for example by visiting the website of the Canadian Anti-Fraud Centre, see: <https://www.antifraudcentre-centreantifraude.ca/index-eng.htm>) so that it is able to identify scams and protect itself from becoming a victim. ATB Financial is not responsible if the Client becomes a victim of any fraud.

4.7. Sharing of Information

The Client acknowledges there are businesses that offer services which include aggregating account balances at different institutions to assist in financial management. In the event that the Client, or any Authorized Contact provides any Authentication Method to any such business, the Client will bear sole responsibility for the sharing of such information.

4.8. Applications

If the Client or any User downloads or uses an Application to access any services (including the Services), products, functionality, features, content or information offered by ATB Financial, then:

- iv) ATB Financial may cancel the terms and the license to the Application at any time on notice. The Client also acknowledges that the exchange rate ATB Financial charges for buying one particular currency from the Client may be different from what ATB Financial charges when selling that same currency to the Client. In the case of a Funds Transfer being sent via our tax pay service, ATB Financial may, in its sole discretion, process the Funds Transfer request even if the Client's Account does not contain sufficient available funds, but the Client will be responsible for any fees, charges or interest incurred due to insufficient funds or the Account going into overdraft.

8.3. Transfers from Other Accounts

If ATB Financial permits the Client to use this Service to receive Funds Transfers sent by a third party into the Client's designated Account, the content of any message or information contained in the Funds Transfer (including the Message Detail) may contain Malicious Content. The inclusion of any link in the message or information contained in the Funds Transfer (including the Message Detail) does not imply endorsement, investigation or verification by ATB Financial of the information contained within such link. The Client acknowledges there may be risks associated with receiving, viewing, accessing, obtaining or processing such message or information. Such risks include, but are not limited to, introducing a virus, cancelbot, Trojan horse, worm or other harmful, disruptive or surreptitious component into the Client's, and/or Account Holder's if applicable, hardware, software, systems and/or programs that may result in the damage, corruption, loss and/or leakage of data, system crashes, and being unable to access data, applications, and the like. The Client freely assumes and accepts these risks.

8.4. Message Content

The Client is responsible for the contents of any messages or information sent or received using this Funds Transfer Service, including the Message Details, and is prohibited from sending or receiving a message or information that contains Malicious Content.

8.5. Right to Decline or Return

ATB Financial may, in its sole discretion, choose to decline to act on any Funds Transfer Instructions, and may return any Funds Transfer received, if ATB Financial reasonably believes that:

9. Interac e-Transfer Service

9.1. Terms and Conditions

Terms and conditions in this Article 9 apply only to the Interac e-Transfer Service and are in addition to all other terms and conditions in this Agreement. If there is a conflict between this Article 9 and the remaining terms of this Agreement, this Article 9 will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

9.2. Description of Service

The Client may use this Interac e-Transfer Service to send and receive Interac e-Transfers, send and receive Request Monies, and/or register for the Autodeposit Service.

9.3. Service Requirements

The Client must be enrolled in ATB Business to use certain features of this Interac e-Transfer Service. Certain features of this Interac e-Transfer Service may only be available through certain Devices (such as a computer or laptop), and may not be available through all Devices.

9.4. Canadian Currency

The Interac e-Transfer Service may only be used for Interac e-Transfer Transactions in Canadian dollars to and from Canadian dollar bank accounts in Canada. No foreign currency transactions are permitted.

9.5. Receiving Interac e-Transfer by Email or Mobile Number

When an email is sent to the Client at an email address, or a text message is sent to the Client at a mobile number, such email address or mobile number designated by the Administrator or any User on behalf of the Client, then the Client may initiate receipt of an Interac e-Transfer Transaction using the Interac e-Transfer Service. The email or text message will indicate:

- (a) the Sender of the Interac e-Transfer;
- (b) the Interac e-Transfer amount;
- (c) the name of the Client as the Recipient; and
- (d) the Sender is using the Interac e-Transfer Service.

9.5.1 Notification. The amount of the Interac e-Transfer Transaction sent by the Sender will be held until:

- (a) the Sender receives notification that the Client has correctly responded to the Sender's Interac e-Transfer Question;
- (b) the Sender cancels the Interac e-Transfer Transaction;
- (c) the Interac e-Transfer Transaction expires; or
- (d) the Sender receives notification that the Client did not correctly answer the Interac e-Transfer Question.

9.5.2 The Client may accept the Interac e-Transfer Transaction sent to the Client by the Sender through the Interac e-Transfer Service, for which fees may apply as outlined within the Pricing Arrangement.

9.5.3 In order to accept the Interac e-Transfer Transaction sent to the Client, the Client must correctly answer the Interac e-Transfer Question posed to it by the Sender within two (2) attempts (or such other number of attempts as designated by ATB or Interac) otherwise the Interac e-Transfer Transaction will fail. The Client will have thirty (30) calendar days within which to accept the Interac e-Transfer Transaction through the Interac e-Transfer Service (or such other time period as designated by the other financial institution or Interac), after which time period, the Interac e-Transfer Transaction will expire. However, if the Client has requested the Interac e-Transfer Transaction through the Request Money Service or is subscribed to the Autodeposit Service (both of which are more fully explained below in Sections 9.8 and 9.9 respectively), the Client will not be required to answer an Interac e-Transfer Question and the funds will automatically be deposited into the Client's Designated Account.

9.6. Sending Interac e-Transfer by Email or Mobile Number

When the Client uses the Interac e-Transfer Service, the Client is responsible for:

- (a) providing a valid email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information for the Recipient;
- (b) ensuring that the Recipient has consented to the Client providing and ATB Financial using the contact information of the Recipient for the purposes of sending funds via Interac e-Transfer to the Recipient;
- (c) promptly making any necessary changes to the contact information of the Recipient and keeping such information current; and
- (d) confirming the accuracy of the Interac e-Transfer amount.

9.6.1 When the Client initiates sending an Interac e-Transfer Transaction, ATB Financial will withdraw the applicable amount from the Client's Account and Interac, on behalf of the Client, will send an email, text message or other notice to the Recipient at the email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information that the Client designates. The notice will indicate:

- (a) that the Client is the Sender;
- (b) the Interac e-Transfer amount;
- (c) the name of the Recipient; and
- (d) that the Client is using the Interac e-Transfer Service.

9.6.2 The Client must provide an Interac e-Transfer Question to authenticate the Recipient, who must correctly answer the Interac e-Transfer Question in order to claim the funds via Interac e-Transfer. The Client agrees to create an effective Interac e-Transfer Question that is known only to the Client and the Recipient, and not to use email, text message or the optional message field that may accompany the Interac e-Transfer Transaction to send the Recipient the answer to the Interac e-Transfer Question. However, if the Recipient has requested the funds via Interac e-Transfer through the Request Money Service or registered a Designated Account for the Autodeposit Service (both of which are more fully explain below in Sections 9.8 and 9.9 respectively), the Recipient will not be required to answer an Interac e-Transfer Question and the funds will automatically be deposited into the Recipient's Designated Account.

9.6.3 Where an Interac e-Transfer Question is used to authenticate the Recipient, the amount withdrawn for the Interac e-Transfer Transaction will be held until ATB Financial receives notification that:

- (a) the Recipient has correctly answered the Interac e-Transfer Question,
- (b) the Client cancels and reclaims the Interac e-Transfer funds;
- (c) the Interac e-Transfer Transaction expires; or
- (d) the Recipient does not correctly answer the Interac e-Transfer Question in two (2) attempts (or such other number of attempts as designated by ATB or Interac).

9.6.4 The Recipient of the funds via Interac e-Transfer may claim or decline the Interac e-Transfer Transaction through ATB Business, the online banking service of another Canadian financial institution or through Interac. In order to claim the funds via Interac e-Transfer, the Recipient must correctly answer the Interac e-Transfer Question posed to it (if applicable). The Recipient will have thirty (30) calendar days to claim or decline the Interac e-Transfer Transaction (or such other time period as designated by ATB Financial or Interac), after which, the Interac e-Transfer Transaction will expire. The Client may cancel an Interac e-Transfer Transaction up to the time the Interac e-Transfer Transaction is claimed. The Recipient may not claim the funds via Interac e-Transfer once the Client cancels the Interac e-Transfer Transaction, even if they have already received the notification of the Interac e-Transfer Transaction.

9.6.5 If the Interac e-Transfer Transaction the Client sends is cancelled, declined, has expired, or the Recipient does not correctly answer the Interac e-Transfer Question, then the Interac e-Transfer amount will be returned and deposited into the Client's Account or any other account the Client has with ATB Financial.

9.6.6 The Client agrees that ATB Financial, any other Participating Financial Institution and Interac may accept and act upon any instructions provided through the Interac e-Transfer Service, whether or not such individual is the intended Recipient. The Client shall bear sole responsibility for the accuracy of any Interac e-Transfer Transactions.

9.7. Account Number Routed Transactions

When funds via Interac e-Transfer are sent by Account Number Routed Transaction, the funds will automatically be deposited into the Designated Account. An Account Number Routed Transaction cannot be cancelled or declined and will not expire once it has been sent.

9.7.1 When the Client sends funds via an Account Number Routed Transaction, the Client is responsible for:

- (a) providing correct account numbers, and financial institution and branch numbers for the Recipient;
- (b) providing a correct and operational email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information for the Recipient, if applicable;
- (c) ensuring that the Recipient has consented to the Client providing and ATB Financial using the account and contact information of the Recipient for the purposes of sending funds via Account Number Routed Transaction and providing notice of the Account Number Routed Transaction, if applicable, to the Recipient;

- (d) promptly making any necessary changes to the account and contact information of the Recipient, and keeping such information current; and
- (e) confirming the accuracy of the Interac e-Transfer amount. The Recipient may receive notice that the Client has sent the Account Number Routed Transaction if the Client provides the contact information of the Recipient in the Account Number Routed Transaction for the purposes of sending such notice to the Recipient.

9.7.2 If the Client would like to receive funds via an Account Number Routed Transaction, the Client is responsible for providing to the Sender:

- (a) correct account numbers, and financial institution and branch numbers for their Designated Account; and
- (b) a correct and operational email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information for purposes of receiving notice of the Account Number Routed Transaction.

Despite the Client providing their contact information to the Sender, the Client may receive notice of an Account Number Routed Transaction only if the Sender provides the contact information of the Client in the Account Number Routed Transaction for the purposes of sending such notice to the Client.

9.8. Request Money Service

The Request Money Service is only available if the financial institution of both the Requestor and Responder are Participating Financial Institutions.

9.8.1 If the Client uses the Request Money Service, the Client is responsible for:

- (a) providing a correct and operational email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information for the Responder;
- (b) ensuring that the Responder has consented to the Client providing and ATB Financial using such contact information for the purposes of the Request Money; and
- (c) promptly making any necessary changes to any permitted contact information of the Responder and keeping such information current; and
- (d) confirming the accuracy of the amount of the Request Money.

9.8.2 When the Client initiates a Request Money, Interac, on behalf of the Client, will send an email, text message or other notice to the intended Responder at the email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information that the Client designates. The notice will indicate:

- (a) that the Client is the Requestor;
- (b) the amount of the Request Money;
- (c) the name of the Responder; and
- (d) that the Client is using the Request Money Service.

9.8.3 The Responder may accept, decline or block the Request Money through ATB Business, the online banking service of another Canadian financial institution or through Interac.

9.8.4 The Responder will have up to ninety (90) calendar days within which to accept, decline or block the Request Money (or such other time period as designated by ATB Financial), after which, the Request Money will expire. The Client may cancel a Request Money up to the time the Request Money is accepted, declined or blocked. The Responder may not send the funds via Interac e-Transfer once the Client cancels the Request Money, even if the Responder has already received the notification of the Request Money.

9.8.5 If the Responder accepts the Request Money, and thereby fulfills the Request Money, the Interac e-Transfer amount will automatically be deposited into the Client's Designated Account without the Client having to log into ATB Business or answer an Interac e-Transfer Question. The Responder cannot cancel the Interac e-Transfer Transaction once they have accepted the Request Money and sent the funds.

9.8.6 In the case that a Responder blocks the Request Money, they have the option to block all future Request Money transactions from the Client and / or change their preference to block receiving any future Request Money notifications.

9.8.7 If the Client has blocked Request Money notifications and would like to make changes to their preferences, the Client may do so through the Interac e-Transfer Service or ATB Business, as applicable.

9.9. Autodeposit Service

The Autodeposit Service is only available if the financial institution of both the Sender and Recipient are Participating Financial Institutions.

9.9.1 If the Client subscribes to the Autodeposit Service, the Client is responsible for:

- (a) registering the Client's valid email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information;
- (b) selecting a Designated Account for each registered email address, mobile number or other permitted contact information; and
- (c) promptly making any necessary changes to the Client's contact information and keeping such information current.

9.9.2 Once registered, all funds received via Interac e-Transfer will automatically be deposited into the Client's Designated Account without the Client having to log into ATB Business or answer an Interac e-Transfer Question.

9.9.3 When funds are sent via Interac e-Transfer to a Recipient who has registered a Designated Account, the Sender cannot cancel the Interac e-Transfer Transaction.

9.9.4 Registration guidelines, including the number of email addresses, mobile numbers or other permitted contact information that may be registered and which Account is eligible to be selected as a Designated Account, may be set by ATB Financial or by a third party.

9.10. Status

The Client is responsible to check on the status of any Interac e-Transfer that the Client sends using the Interac e-Transfer Service.

9.11. Limits

ATB Financial may set one or more limits, in its sole discretion, and such limits are subject to change without notice. Such limits may include:

- (a) the number of Interac e-Transfers that can be made in one day; and
- (b) the maximum amount for each Interac e-Transfer or in total per day.

9.12. Fees and Charges

The Client agrees to pay ATB Financial's fees and charges for the Interac e-Transfer Service in accordance with the Pricing Arrangement established by ATB Financial from time to time and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

9.12.1 The Client acknowledges other persons, including Interac, other financial institutions, and wireless carriers or Internet service providers may charge the Client, whether as Sender, Recipient, Requestor, or Responder, fees and charges in connection with this Interac e-Transfer Service, including for accessing, sending, receiving, and processing Interac e-Transfers (including those through the Request Money Service and/or Autodeposit Service).

9.13. Message Content

ATB Financial will not examine any optional message or information accompanying any Interac e-Transfer, including any Message Detail, and ATB Financial assumes no responsibility for the contents of such messages or information. Communication should not be addressed to ATB Financial, any other financial institution, or Interac, using the optional message.

9.13.1 The Client is responsible for the contents of any messages or information sent or received using this Interac e-Transfer Service, and is prohibited from sending or receiving a message or information that contains Malicious Content.

9.13.2 If Interac reasonably believes, in its sole discretion, that any Malicious Content is being transmitted in any optional message or information accompanying any Interac e-Transfer, including any Message Detail, Interac may elect to:

- (a) remove all or a portion of such optional message or information, including any Message Detail, from the Interac e-Transfer before processing the Interac e-Transfer; or
- (b) not process the Interac e-Transfer altogether.

9.13.3 If ATB Financial is informed of or is otherwise made aware of Malicious Content in any optional message or information accompanying any Interac e-Transfer, including any Message Detail, ATB Financial may notify Interac, subject to applicable laws.

9.13.4 The Client discharges and releases ATB Financial from, and will indemnify and hold ATB Financial harmless for any Claims arising in connection with this Interac e-Transfer Service, including as a result of any messages or information sent or received using this Interac e-Transfer Service.

10. Remove Cheque Deposit Service

10.1. Terms and Conditions

Terms and conditions in this Article 10 apply only to the Remote Cheque Deposit Service and are in addition to all other terms and conditions in this Agreement. If there is a conflict between this Article 10 and the remaining terms of this Agreement, this Article 10 will prevail to the extent of the inconsistency in respect of the Remote Cheque Deposit Service.

10.2. Description of Service

Remote Cheque Deposit allows the Client to make deposits to Accounts by taking a picture of the front and back of eligible Deposit Items (Images) with an eligible Device and delivering the Images and associated deposit information to ATB Financial. The Client agrees to follow procedures and instructions for use of Remote Cheque Deposit that ATB Financial may establish from time to time.

10.3. Appointment

ATB Financial appoints the Client as agent to act on ATB Financial's behalf in the creation and submission of Images to ATB Financial. The Client accepts this appointment and acknowledges that the Client's role as agent for ATB Financial cannot be further delegated by the Client, even if the initial Deposit Item was reversed.

10.4. Deposit Items

The Client may image and deposit through Remote Cheque Deposit any of the following original paper items issued by a Canadian financial institution, the Government of Canada or the Government of Alberta and payable in Canadian currency:

- (a) cheques (including certified cheques);

- (c) travellers cheques;
- (d) money orders (including Canada Post money orders);
- (e) bank drafts;
- (f) non-MICR (magnetic ink character recognition) ink cheques; or
- (g) any other item that ATB Financial chooses to make eligible for Remote Cheque Deposit from time to time (each a Deposit Item).

10.5. Eligible and Ineligible Deposit Items

When the Client uses Remote Cheque Deposit, the Client agrees that:

- (a) the Client will deposit:
 - (i) eligible Deposit Items;
 - (ii) Deposit Items into an eligible Canadian dollar Account; and
 - (iii) Deposit Items payable to the Client;

- (c) if the Client is depositing the Deposit Item to a joint account, the Client may deposit the Deposit Item if the Deposit Item is made payable to the Client and / or the joint account holder in accordance with the Account. ATB Financial will not accept a Deposit Item that is payable to someone else and endorsed over to the Client;
- (d) each Image must be an image of the front and back of the original Deposit Item and not an image of a photocopy, PDF or other printout of the Deposit Item;
- (e) any information the Client provides to ATB Financial about the Deposit Item is accurate and true and will match the information contained in the Images;

- (f) the Client will not re-deposit or re-present the Deposit Item after it has been deposited through Remote Cheque Deposit;

The Client agrees to keep the Deposit Item in a safe and secure place for five (5) Business Days following the date of deposit and will promptly send the Deposit Item to ATB Financial upon ATB Financial's request. Upon the expiry of the five (5) Business Days, the Client agrees to promptly destroy the Deposit Item.

10.8. Right to Reject; Limitation of Liability

At ATB Financial's discretion, ATB Financial reserves the right to reject any Deposit Item deposited through Remote Cheque Deposit. A Deposit Item may be returned to ATB Financial by the paying financial institution because, among other reasons, the paying financial institution determines that the Deposit Item cannot be processed, is illegible or is otherwise unacceptable. ATB Financial is not responsible for Deposit Items ATB Financial does not receive or for Images that are corrupted or not fully received. ATB Financial may charge back to the Account at any time any Deposit Item that ATB Financial subsequently determines was not eligible for deposit. If the deposit amount does not match the amount of the Image, ATB Financial may adjust the Account to reflect the amount on the Image received. The Client agrees that ATB Financial is not liable for any Damages the Client may incur as a result of ATB Financial's chargeback or adjustment. The Client is responsible for any and all costs associated with obtaining a replacement negotiable Deposit Item in the event that ATB Financial requests the Client re-submit an Image and the original Deposit Item was destroyed or otherwise lost. If the Client does not comply with such request made pursuant to this Article 10, then ATB Financial may place a hold on or reverse any credit made to the Account in relation to the Deposit Item even if this creates an overdraft on the Account.

10.9. Deposit Date

The Client may access Remote Cheque Deposit seven (7) days a week. If ATB Financial receives the Image by 8:00 p.m. Mountain Time, ATB Financial will consider that day to be the deposit date (Deposit Date). 10.10. Availability of Funds

When the Client makes a deposit through Remote Cheque Deposit, the funds will be credited to the Account on the Deposit Date but availability and access to the funds will be subject to ATB Financial's hold policy and the Client's access to funds limit.

10.11. Limits

ATB Financial may establish limits on the dollar amount of Deposit Items and / or number of Deposit Items which may be deposited through Remote Cheque Deposit. If the Client attempts to make a deposit in excess of these limits, ATB Financial may reject the Client's deposit. If at any time ATB Financial permits the Client to make a deposit in excess of these limits, ATB Financial will not be obligated to allow such a deposit at other times.

10.12. Fees

While there is no fee for the provision of Remote Cheque Deposit, regular Account transaction fees may apply in accordance with this Agreement or Other Agreements. ATB Financial may charge a fee for the provision of Remote Cheque Deposit if ATB Financial provides the Client with advance notice required in accordance with applicable laws. If the Client continues to use Remote Cheque Deposit after the fee becomes effective, the Client agrees to pay the fee that has been disclosed as this fee may change from time to time.

10.13. Manner of Clearance

The manner in which the Deposit Items are cleared, presented for payment and collected shall be at ATB Financial's sole discretion.

10.14. Acceptance of Risk

By using Remote Cheque Deposit, the Client accepts the risk that a Deposit Item may be intercepted or misdirected during transmission. 10.15. Image Quality

The Image transmitted to ATB Financial using Remote Cheque Deposit must be legible and clear as determined in ATB Financial's sole discretion. The image quality of Deposit Items must also comply with the requirements established from time to time by ATB Financial, Payments Canada or any other regulatory agency or association. The Client agrees that ATB Financial shall not be liable under any circumstances for any Damages resulting from a Deposit Item's poor image quality including those related to rejection of or the delayed or improper crediting of such a Deposit Item or from any inaccurate information the Client supplies regarding the Deposit Item.

10.16. Cooperation

The Client agrees to cooperate with ATB Financial in the investigation of Images (such as poor quality Images and unusual transactions) by providing to ATB Financial, upon request, originals or copies of Deposit Items deposited through Remote Cheque Deposit in the Client's possession and any records the Client may have related to such Deposit Items or Images.

10.17. Client Responsibilities

The Client is solely responsible and liable for:

- (b) any fees or other charges imposed by the Device provider, wireless carrier or Internet service provider;
- (c) maintaining adequate security over scanning, imaging and transmission activities performed in connection with Remote Cheque Deposit, including assigning and using passwords and encryption to prevent unauthorized or fraudulent use of the service and interception of data, and to prevent unauthorized or fraudulent activity with respect to original payment items for which an Image has been deposited;

10.18. Compromised Device

The Client is responsible for all deposits completed through Remote Cheque Deposit on the Device. The Client must notify ATB Financial immediately in the event that the Client believes a Device has been compromised or if a Device is lost or stolen. When the Client notifies ATB Financial, ATB Financial will restrict access to Remote Cheque Deposit.

10.19. Termination of Service

ATB Financial may terminate the Client's access to Remote Cheque Deposit at any time and for any reason including if the Client breaches any term of this Agreement, if the Client uses Remote Cheque Deposit for any unauthorized or illegal purposes or the Client uses Remote Cheque Deposit in a manner inconsistent with any procedures or instructions ATB Financial establishes from time to time, in which case, this Agreement will continue to apply in respect of the Client's past access.

10.20. Non-Liability for Damages

Except as provided in Article 19 or as required by applicable law, ATB Financial will not be liable to the Client for any Damages arising from Remote Cheque Deposit including:

- (a) delay in processing a deposit;
- (b) requiring the Client to obtain another negotiable Deposit Item; or
- (c) the Client's use or inability to use Remote Cheque Deposit.

11. Alerts

11.1. Description of Service

If ATB Financial permits, Authorized Contacts may be entitled to sign-up to receive Alerts . These Alerts will be sent to the e-mail address provided by such Authorized Contact for the Services. If the Authorized Contact's email address changes, such Authorized Contact is responsible for informing ATB Financial of that change. The Alert service will allow the Authorized Contact to choose which alert messages they receive in respect of the Accounts of the Client.

11.2. Preventing Access

The Client acknowledges that Alerts may contain information about the Client's Account(s). Accordingly, anyone with access to the Authorized Contact's email may be able to view the contents of the Alerts. It is the responsibility of the Client to take appropriate steps to prevent access to this information by unauthorized persons. In the event that an Authorized Contact's access is temporarily disabled, such Authorized Contact

11.3. Delivery and Accuracy

While ATB Financial endeavors to provide Alerts in a timely manner and with accurate information, ATB Financial provides no guarantee as to the delivery or accuracy of the contents of the Alerts, and the Client agrees that ATB Financial will not be liable for Alerts sent pursuant to the Alerts service, including but not limited to, for any errors in the content of any Alert or for any actions taken or not taken by the Client or any third party in reliance of an Alert. 12. Account Statements and Information Reporting

12.1. E-Statements

At the end of every statement cycle for any Account that is accessible through ATB Business, ATB Financial will post on ATB Business an electronic version of the Account statement (E-Statement).

12.2. Statements by Mail

If ATB Financial permits, the Client may elect not to receive Account statements by mail. If such is the case and notwithstanding anything contrary contained in any Account Agreement, the Client agrees that:

- (a) ATB Financial will no longer be required to mail paper Account statements to the Client;
- (b) receipt of the E-Statement by the Client will be deemed to have occurred when it is first posted on ATB Business;
- (c) the Client will regularly and at least once per month retrieve the E-Statement as ATB Financial will not send notification to the Client that such statement has been posted on ATB Business; and
- (d) the Client will examine the E-Statement, upon which, the Client will have thirty (30) calendar days to notify ATB Financial in writing of any discrepancies, irregularities, errors, omissions or objections with regards to any transaction posted or information contained in the E-Statement. If the Client does not notify ATB Financial as required, the balance and transaction information posted on the E-Statement will (except as to any alleged errors so notified) be deemed to be conclusively correct, complete and authentic, and will be binding on the Client.

12.3. Information Reporting

In addition to the Client's regular Account statements, ATB Financial may provide the Client various confirmations, statements and reports of the Client's activities in respect of the Services. It is the Client's obligation to examine those statements and report any discrepancies. ATB Financial's records will, in the absence of obvious error or as otherwise agreed by ATB Financial in writing, be conclusive evidence of the information received by ATB Financial and the transactions between ATB Financial and the Client. The computer-generated or electronic records received or created by ATB Financial will be admissible in a court of law and the Client consents to such admissibility and waives any defense the Client may have as to their admissibility.

The Client confirms with ATB Financial that each Account Holder which has executed an Agent Authorization has granted it access (as Agent for and on behalf of the Account Holder) to all of the Account Holder's ATB Financial accounts in connection with the use by the Agent of the Services for the benefit of the Account Holder. The Client represents and agrees with ATB Financial that:

- (a) no third party has any beneficial or legal interest, direct or indirect, in any of the Accounts or the funds deposited therein (except with respect to creditors of an Account Holder holding a security interest in the ordinary course of business); and
- (b) it has the full right, power and authority from each Account Holder that has executed an Agent Authorization for ATB to release confidential information and reports concerning the Accounts to the Client (in its capacity as Agent) and the Agent Authorization has been authorized by all necessary or other organizational actions of each Account Holder and is a legal, valid and binding obligation of each Account Holder enforceable against the Account Holder in accordance with its terms except to the extent that such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization and other laws affecting the rights of creditors and others generally and by principles of equity.

15.3. Acknowledgement

The Client on behalf of itself and each Account Holder understands that it shall be responsible to ATB Financial for all debts, liabilities and obligations arising out of transactions made by the Agent in respect of the Accounts as a result of the Account Holders granting the Agent access to the Accounts as provided in this Agent Authorization. Furthermore, the Agent agrees that it shall be responsible for the compliance with all of the obligations under the applicable Agreements and shall be bound by the applicable Agreements in respect of the use of the Services by the Agent on behalf of the Account Holders (including any obligations under any related implementation forms).

The Client and any Account Holder may remove any Accounts from the Services by providing ATB Financial with written notice, and ATB Financial shall implement such removal as soon as reasonably possible.

15.6.

The Client and any Account Holder may terminate the Agent Authorization with prior notice to ATB Financial, and such termination shall take effect when such notice is processed by ATB Financial, acting reasonably.

15.7.

ATB Financial may, from time to time, make any changes it deems necessary to the Services (or add new Cash Management Services) and, upon prior written notice to the Agent and the applicable Account Holder (in accordance with the notice provisions outlined in the Agreement), such altered or new Services shall become subject to this Agent Authorization.

15.8. Indemnity

The Client agrees to indemnify ATB Financial, its representatives and employees, service providers and any third party providing or settling instructions against all Claims, directly or indirectly incurred by or against any of them, which, directly or indirectly, without limitation, are the result of the Client acting as Agent for any Account Holder and any resulting actions taken in connection with the Agent Authorization and as contemplated by this Agreement.

In addition to the foregoing, Service Schedules may allow for ATB Financial to accept Instructions in respect of some of the Services from Instructing Officers by telephone. For greater certainty, ATB Financial is not required to verify the identity of any Instructing Officer or the bona fides, correctness or validity of transactions. ATB Financial may rely on any such telephone Instructions of the Instructing Officer or purporting to be given by or on behalf of the Client and ATB Financial may treat such Instructions as fully authorized by the Client in writing and such Instructions shall be binding upon the Client. ATB Financial shall be entitled to retain and store records, documentation and information respecting the Services in any manner that it determines in its sole discretion.

16.4. Sufficient Time for Instructions

The Client will ensure that all Instructions electronically given through the Services to ATB Financial by the Client are received in sufficient time to permit ATB Financial a reasonable opportunity to deal with them or as otherwise specified by ATB Financial. Unless otherwise agreed to in writing, ATB Financial has no obligation to verify any information provided by the Client and ATB Financial shall be under no duty or obligation to inquire into, confirm or otherwise consider the correctness or validity of any Instruction. ATB Financial will not be liable for any Damages that the Client may suffer or incur in relation to the Services from acting on Instructions sent through ATB Business when ATB Financial acted in good faith believing such person to be the Client, an Authorized Contact or a Signing Officer. ATB Financial will act on all acceptable Instructions sent through ATB
